Club Seats New Officer Panel

Torrance Welcome Wagon Club installed its new officers at a luncheon meeting held at the Redondo Elks Club Thursday with Mrs. Thomas Stamm, Welcome Wagon hostess, endowing the new leaders with their duties of office.

Mrs. Jess Browning assumed the presidency. Installed with her were Mmes. John Martenson, Herb Ganske, Earl Schiring and Tom Detlefson, vice presidents; Richard Strother, recording secretary, Paul Artman, corresponding secretary; Jess Riley, treasurer and Larry Grisham, historian.

Others filling key positions with the club during the coming year will be Mmes. M. C. Kettle, parliamentarian; Helen Griffin, membership assistant; Robert E. Doyle, reservations; W. Cessna, bridge; John Lake, Couples Club, Donald L. Patton, civics; Edward Beal, Trip-For-Kicks chairman; F. Hofermalz, welfare; Fred Davis, baby sitting; John Noel, publicity; George W. Humphries, bowling;

James Komar, hospitality; Emil Raulin, inspiration; Alfred Sanders, decoration; Frank Jurkovich, advisor to the president; and Thomas Stamm, hostess.

Following the installation, guests enjoyed a "SAS Flight into Fashion Wardrobe" show modeled by Mrs. Paul Artman. All designs were from Vogue patterns and exhibited a travel wardrobe, consisting of 10 pieces weighing 25 lbs. and combined into 13 different "looks."

Assume Leadership
